Sorraia Zaied is currently at the top of her game. If you were in Cairo and wanted to enjoy the best show in town, you would book an evening at one of the top 5 star venues. Chances are, Sorraia will be the headliner. She dances multiple shows a night, every day of the week. In order to reach such status in the Bellydance capital of the world, one has to perfect the art of Bellydance, which Sorraia has done in a masterful way. Sorraia began dancing in her Brazil where she reached local fame. In 2001, she moved to Egypt, studied with master teacher Raqia Hassan and immersed herself in the art of Egyptian dance. Before too long, Sorraia reached international fame. She is regularly featured in Raqia's technique DVDs and at "Ahlan wa Sahlan" dance festivals as a master teacher and a star headliner in the Gala shows.

Sorraia mixes in her fiery Brazilian training with her passionate deeply moving Egyptian expressions forming a unique style that touches the hearts and souls of her audience. She performs regularly at top 5-stars Cairo hotels. Her dance shows feature 15+ musicians and she is said to dance with her emotions on her sleeve. Sorraia has gained international fame and regular followers around the globe. She is world famous for her amazing shimmies and fabulous drum solos. Sorraia is always innovating and creating her own signature performances that capture the hearts and minds of everyone who watches her shows.

In her workshops, Sorraia will teach her very unique techniques of Egyptian Oriental dance, the fiery Sorraia touches that infuse Samba and other Latin dances, her signature captivating shimmies and drum solos and NEW THIS YEAR: Iraqi Kawliya dance! This energetic folk Gypsy dance from Iraq is the new spice used in Oriental shows in Cairo.

Sorraia has successfully trained many dancers who are well known in Egypt today. Her performances and workshops have taken her around the world and she is reputed to have a unique and clear understanding of the art of Egyptian Bellydance. Sorraia is well loved and respected by all her students, she's known to give all she has without holding anything back and is very patient and kind with her students.

Sorraia is truly a magnificent dancer and an inspiration to all dancers.
