Premier Dancer and Artist

Hala has been dancing to the rhythms and melodies of the Middle East since she was a child in Alexandria, Egypt.

As the only Bay Area belly dancer from the Middle East, Hala has been praised for her authentic form, elegant style and immaculate rhythms. Captivating audiences with her passion and energy, she performs solo and with her troupe.

Hala studies regularly with Egyptian master teachers and brings the latest dance styles, music, fashion and traditions from Egypt every year. She also teaches classes, leads workshops featuring internationally renowned dancers and choreographers, and organizes annual music and dance tours to Egypt.

Performances & Workshops

Hala and her troupe perform at a wide variety of venues, including

-  Arabic cultural festivals, banquets and celebrations, including one in San Jose where Mayor Ron Gonzales was guest of honor
-  Cultural and international events at various institutions including Stanford University, College of San Mateo, San Jose City College, Santa Clara University, Evergreen Valley College and more
-  26th annual San Francisco Ethnic Dance Festival
-  Workshops featuring Egyptian dance pioneers Mahmoud Reda, Farida Fahmy, Faten Salama, Atef Farag and many American and International dance stars
-  Annual Bethlehem Christmas play in Santa Clara
-  Restaurants and Middle Eastern venues in the Greater San Francisco Bay Area
-  Middle Eastern Dance Festivals in Egypt and the USA
